HAPPENINGS IN ILLINOIS CITIES AND TOWNS

CHICKENS CAUSE BREACH OF PEACE.

Mrs. Miley Claims Her Corn Patch Was Invaded and Mrs. Ferris Says It Should Be Fenced In.

Mrs. Malin Ferris of Belleville was arrested yesterday by Policeman Yerk of that place on a charge of disorderly conduct preferred by Mrs. M. B. Miley. Chickens, the property of Mrs. Ferris, Chickens, the property of Mrs. Ferris, and a corn patch, the property of Mrs. Miley, caused all of the trouble.

According to Mrs. Miley, Mrs. Ferris has permitted her chickens to roam at will and that the poultry have seised on the above-mentioned corn patch as an excellent forage ground. Mrs. Miley objected to the chickens going into the corn patch, and Mrs. Farris is alleged to have told her to build a fence around the corn and the chickens would not bother it. Matters grew very strained, and yesterday, according to both the women, a back-yard row resulted. The case will be thrashed out before Justice of the Peace Wangelin.

other romance credited to the World's Fair.

Bride and bridegroom had grown up together in the same county in Tennessee and had been sweethearts since childhood, but the subject of marriage had never been broached.

After finishing her education Miss Williams became a teacher in her home town and soon after Mr. Gower came to East St. Louis, where he secured a clerkship with the Swift Packing Company.

An occasional letter was exchanged, but as before, nothing as to a probability of their marriage was ever mentioned, in any of these episties. A few days ago Mr. Gower received a letter informing him that Miss Williams intended to visit the World's Fair and requested him to meet her. He did so yesterday morning.

The entire day was spent sightseeing at the Exposition. The grandeur of the many things he saw and especially the wondrous beauty of the cascades revived him courage to ask the question which won him a bride.

They returned to the Eiss Side and were married at 10 o'clock by Justice James M. Beach. They will take up their future residence in East St. Louis, and wired the news to their folks last night.

POWELL CLAYTON SOON TO RETIRE

Ambassador to Mexico Visits White House, and, It Is Stated, Expressed Desire to Return Home.

Washington, June 14.-Powell Clayton. United States Ambassador to Mexico, today visited the White House and the State Department and discussed the political situation.

the Republican National Committee. He says that the relations between the United States and Mexico never were more cordial and satisfactory than now, which he attributes largely to the earnest friendship of President Diaz.

There is some expectation that his pres-ence here will mark the last of Mr. Clayton's incumbency as Ambassador to Mex-ico. He has lived in Mexico since 1888, and has frequently expressed a desire to retire. It is said that he would have resigned a year ago but for an attack on the United States Senate by champions of some American claimants who had gotten into trouble with the Mexican Govern ment. Several applications, strongly indorsed, have been filed at the White House for the Mexican ambassadorship.

Mr. Clayton will return to the City of Mexico soon after the convention. He will arrive there before the Fourth of July, the celebration of which by the American colony always is made a brilliant occasion. President Diaz and other Mexican officials will participate in the celebration.
